DETROIT LACKS PITCHERS. Hughie Jennings Up Against Same Old

looks as if the Detroit club will tooks as if the Detroit club will suffer from the same old pitching weakness again this season. Manager Jeinings of the Tigers has already ordered his scouts to visit all big league training camps and look over the young twirters so that promising recruits may be claimed if waivers are asked.

Although he has one of the best hitting clubs in the majors, Jennings has always been handicapped by poor pitching. His club generally needs seven or eight runs to win. He hoped seven or eight runs to win. He hoped to pick up some good fingers for this season but about the only likely prospect is Ehmke, secured from Syracuse of the New York State league. He is hoping that Couch from the Pacific Coast league will become a winner, however, Jean Embur who

The Fact-Six is The Chandler Six. Greatest of All Light Sixes

These Are Facts. Not Claims

THERE is no other six more flex-I ible in control, more responsive to your every demand, than the Chandler.

There is no other which will pull hard grades on high with greater ease.

There is no other so economical in operation.

There is no other which embodies in its design and construction so many features characteristic of highgrade high-priced motor cars.

There is no other of more beautiful body lines or greater riding comfort.

There are five attractive Chandler types of body, all mounted on the same great Chandler chassis. Most popular of these, of course, are the big seven-passenger touring and the graceful four-passenger roadster. No other roadster of any design or any type has ever attained a degree of popularity even approaching the popularity of this Chandler model.
